PROJECTS

React.js developer, ExcelLearn

2021, 3 months

Description: E-learning marketplace tailored to the Asian market. It allows teachers to post 2 types of offerings (personal and group lessons) and specify their rate for the lesson, and their availability on the calendar. Students can search for appropriate tutors, books and pay for the lesson right on the platform. A lesson is held as a video call between all participants with a shared whiteboard and the ability to chat.
